

Center for Asian Studies Presents:

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF LITERATURE IN HISTORY

Guest Speaker:

HONG YING & ADAM WILLIAMS
*

MARCH 12, 2025, 10:30 AM - NOON
ENGINEERING BUILDING 285,
SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY

About the Speakers:

*Hong Ying is a famous writer, screenwriter, and director. Her representative works include Daughter of the River, Good Children of the Flowers, and K, which have been translated into over 30 languages. She directed the cinematic film Moonlight Warrior, which won the Best Screenplay Award of the Next Generation and other prizes. It was also nominated for the competition section of the Cinequest Film & VR Festival in January 2025, a festival certified by the Academy Awards and selected as the Best Film Festival by readers of USA Today.

*Adam Williams was an adventurer, journalist, business man and writer.

If you have any questions, please contact Xiaojia.hou@sjsu.edu