Course Description

This course aims to simulate actual business communication scenarios (both oral and written) that business professionals encounter in their daily work lives. Assignments and activities have been designed to enable students to practice and apply practical and theoretical approaches to real-life work situations. Both practical (communication mechanics and style) and theoretical (pragmatics) aspects will be emphasized.

Course Format

This course meets online via Zoom. This requires you to have access to some technology, such as a laptop, a smartphone, and/or a tablet with video conferencing capabilities. You must have access to a camera and microphone that function to fully participate. We will use Canvas, the SJSU Learning Management System, for instructional materials, activities, and assignments. Therefore, you will need regular access to the internet and technology for this class. If you need to borrow laptops, tablets, and other electronics, please contact Student Computing Services at <https://library.sjsu.edu/student-computing-services/student-computing-services>.

To produce and share your work, you will use Google Docs and enable viewers to comment on your work. You must ensure that each document you share has the permission enabled for readers. If I can't open your document, then it was not submitted. If you need help to access these technologies, please contact the IT Service Desk at <https://www.sjsu.edu/it/support/service-desk/index.php>.

Messaging

To communicate with me, please email me directly at my SJSU email address, which is located on the first page of this syllabus. Course materials, such as the syllabus, handouts, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on Canvas. I will use Canvas messages and announcements to update you on classroom issues and assignments, so be sure to check for emails from me via Canvas. They will be sent to your sjsu.edu email account, your Canvas inbox, and any other email you link in Canvas. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU or Canvas to learn of any updates.

Absences

If you are absent from class at any time during the semester, please make sure you study all the materials posted in Canvas under the week you are absent. You are still responsible for all material taught and all tasks assigned on days that you are absent. I also recommend that you ask a classmate to borrow their lecture notes and email me with your specific questions so that you do not fall behind. If you must request an extension, please see the policies under Grading Information for related details.

Library Liaison

Our library liaison is Jane Dodge. Please contact her at jane.dodge@sjsu.edu or visit her page at https://libguides.sjsu.edu/prf.php?account_id=193768 if you need help finding resources for class assignments.

Assignments	Word Counts	GELOs
Canvas Discussion Posts (DP): 5 total	150-200	2,5
Canvas Discussion Responses (DR): 5 total	75-150	2,5
Writing Projects: 4 total	5,000	1-5
Short Writing Tasks	2,000	1-5
Oral Presentation	NA	1,5

Course Requirements and Assignments:

Reading: These reading assignments serve as the foundation for class discussions and/or models of excellence. You must complete all assigned readings before class.

Canvas Discussion Posts (DPs): DPs should build upon readings and class discussions and advance our understanding, not summarize materials. DPs may include thoughtful questions that push us further in our inquiry. DPs may also include your reactions to the reading, observations of how this reading can be applied, or the relationship of a reading to your own ideas and opinions about a topic or to another reading. DPs will be evaluated based on evidence that you completed the reading and have attempted to expand the conversation about the topic in a thoughtful manner.

Canvas Discussion Responses (DRs): DRs should directly address the points and issues raised by classmates in their posts. Feel free to ask questions and debate respectfully. DRs will be evaluated based on evidence that you completed the reading and have attempted to expand the conversation in a thoughtful manner.

Writing: This course requires a minimum of 8,000 words throughout the semester. Written tasks will include those necessary for successful business communications, which may include, but are not limited to, formal and informal correspondence (emails, memos, letters), employment application materials (resumes, cover letters, etc.), report, abstracts, and proposals. More instructions will be posted on Canvas for all major assignments. All assignments must be submitted through Canvas and adhere to formatting and citation guidelines. For this class, there will be three major writing projects.

- Writing Project #1: Professional Biographies
- Writing Project #2 Correspondence Packet
- Writing Project #3: Job Documents
- Writing Project #4: Reports

Short Writing Tasks: You will engage in various tasks aimed at advancing your business writing skills. These tasks will be shorter than the writing project and will be started in class. There may be opportunities to complete some of these tasks outside of class time. See Canvas for details and due dates. Tasks that explore research strategies, paraphrasing, summarizing, quoting, creating promotional materials, etc. are possible. All such in-class tasks will be assessed.

Final Examination or Evaluation - “Faculty members are required to have a culminating activity for their courses, which can include a final examination, a final research paper or project, a final creative work or performance, a final portfolio of work, or other appropriate assignment.”

Oral Presentation (Final): Because corporate America is currently utilizing online tools to stay safe during the pandemic, your final presentation will be an oral presentation (with slides) that is presented fully online using Zoom. You must have your camera on, with a work-appropriate background and work-appropriate clothing so that you gain experience in a professional online environment engaging in professional activities. As interviews, meetings, and presentations are typically done with Zoom in many industries today, this final will give you a realistic opportunity to practice your 21st century skills.

Grading Information:

This course must be passed with C or better to satisfy the CSU Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement (GWAR).

Late Work Policy: All work should be submitted on time. Any unexcused late work will be graded down a FULL LETTER GRADE for every day it is late. (For example, if you earn 95% on a SWT, but you submit it two days late, your grade will be 75% on this task.) If there is a reason you can’t meet a deadline, contact me BEFORE THE DEADLINE. It is possible that the penalty for submitting late work may be waived or modified. There is, however, no guarantee that that will be the case.

Please note that extensions for the four major writing projects are limited to extraordinary circumstances and plan your schedule accordingly calendar located at the end of this syllabus.

General Grading Policy: Requirements for each assignment will vary, but in all cases, grades will reflect the paper’s effectiveness, which is broken down into six major areas: rhetorical/contextual awareness, focus, organization, development, style, and mechanics. More specific rubrics will be provided, as appropriate, on Canvas.

An “A” writing assignment is excellent. It shows mastery of all skills and exceeds expectations in all six grading criterion.

A “B” writing assignment shows competence in the same criterion as an “A” assignment, but there is slight weakness in some of the areas.

A “C” writing assignment will complete the requirements of the assignment, but will show significant weakness in a few of the criterion.

A “D” writing assignment will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial and lack development in its treatment of the topic. It may contain major grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.

An “F” writing assignment does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

Time Management: “Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

Classroom Protocol

Due to the nature of the course, much of the learning will happen in class. Therefore, it is imperative that you attend class every day, on time, prepared to participate in class activities, and having already completed the reading assigned for the day. During the first weeks of class, we will create an etiquette protocol as a class. These rules will be posted on Canvas, and students will be expected to adhere to them as part of their participation grade.

In this class, we may encounter topics that are controversial and potentially upsetting/ challenging to our ideas, beliefs, and understanding of reality. It is vital that we remain respectful of all people during class meetings and in assignments. Some examples are potentially disrespectful comments would be disparaging comments about one’s race, ethnicity, gender, sex, disability, national origin, religion, and/or sexual orientation. Disrespectful and disparaging comments will not be tolerated. If you are unsure if something is inappropriate, please contact me for assistance.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9, relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on Syllabus Information web page (<https://www.sjsu.edu/curriculum/courses/syllabus-info.php>). Make sure to visit this page to review and be aware of these university policies and resources.

Additional Information

Diversity: SJSU is a diverse learning community. We will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to explore complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Our course is designed to include an emphasis on a diverse range of voices and viewpoints.

Trigger Warning: Tasks, class discussions, and/or readings may include material of a sensitive nature. We may encounter materials that challenge your ideas, beliefs, and understanding of reality. Our class will work towards creating a safe space in which we can learn together.
