

Committed to positively impacting the community by providing the highest quality services to the courts, victims and clients.

SOLANO COUNTY PROBATION INTERNSHIP

College students in criminal justice, sociology, psychology, and/or social work majors are welcome to apply for an internship with Solano County Probation.

Qualifications:

- Possession of a valid Class C California's Driver's License.
- Education and/or experience related to criminal justice, sociology, child development, family dynamics, human behavior, psychology, and motivational theories.
- No felony convictions.
- Not currently on probation or parole. No pending charges.
- Must be willing to commit to a minimum of one semester.
- Must be able to pass a background investigation and/or Live Scan.
- A letter of recommendation from your college/university indicating permission to participate in an internship with Solano County Probation.
- A resume.

About us

OUR VISION

It is our vision to positively impact the community through commitment to our mission and evolving best practices.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Solano County Probation Department is to serve and protect the community by:

- Conducting investigations for the Court.
- Holding clients accountable.
- Enforcing court orders.
- Supporting victim restoration.
- Facilitating rehabilitation of clients.
- Providing safe, secure, effective, and proven detention and treatment plans.

CONTACT

If you are interested in an internship with Solano County Probation Department, please contact Dean Douglas at (707) 784-3259 or NADouglas@solanocounty.gov to schedule an interview.