

Recognition of the Amazing Donors to the SJSU Occupational Therapy Department

The faculty, staff and students of the Department of Occupational Therapy at San Jose State University wish to thank and recognize all of our esteemed alumni and donor friends who have contributed over the past year! Your donations directly enrich and impact our department's innovative programs of excellence in education, research and practice in occupational therapy and has been instrumental in continuing the academic excellence that is the San Jose State University Occupational Therapy Department.

Our Endowed "Diamond" Donors:

These donors have made a large endowed donation to support the OT department on an ongoing basis – this provides continuous support!

- Mary Booth created the Mary Booth Scholarships
